Welcome

Welcome to all of our families to the 2019 school year! We have had a fantastic start to the term, with students highly engaged and excited to back amongst their peers. Next week a full newsletter will go home, so please read this short bulletin to keep you informed with upcoming events.

This year we welcome back Cathie Biggins as Student Wellbeing Leader and Jenna Newman who is teaching our EALD class. It's lovely to have these two ladies back in the NSPS fold.

We have welcomed many reception and new families - we will formally introduce them in next week's newsletter. We are starting the year with around 245 enrolments and ten classes which is very healthy indeed. I am enjoying getting to know our new families and catching up with what our students got up to in the holidays.

No hat no play

A reminder that we are a SunSafe school and children must have an appropriate hat to play at break times and during fitness lessons. We always have hats for sale at the front office if your child requires a new one.

Skoolbag

As you would be aware, we have introduced the Skoolbag app at NSPS this year. This is an extra form of communication that will be used in conjunction with notes home and Facebook. We encourage all families to download the app to have all the information from school in one handy location. In an effort to reduce printing, we now have the option of you receiving the newsletter via the app; please let us know if you would prefer this option if you haven't already.

Swimming Program

We start our Reception to year 5 swimming program in week three on the 11th of February. Information is going home today in regards to times, busses and medication.

Meet the Teachers

Our Meet the Teachers night is scheduled for the evening of Tuesday the 19th of February. This is an excellent opportunity to get to know our staff and hear from your child's teacher around the planned learning and expectations for the year. More information will be sent home soon.
